Remarks

- Q2. India has achieved the political justice, but not the social and economic justice. Illustrate the steps required to be taken towards its fulfillment. (10 Marks)

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar had said that on 26th January 1950, we will enter into a paradoxical situation. We will have total equality in terms of political terms but inequality in economic and social sphere. Since 1950 we have achieved political justice because

- 1) All sections including dalits got representation, S.C., S.T.'s, O.B.C. got got the representation, in Panchayats, state legislatures, parliaments.

- 2) Women who are subjugated also got the representation from Panchayats to parliament. Also post like prime minister and President.

Constitutional provisions

- 3) In terms of political sphere everyone is enjoying equality.

However this does not hold true in social and economicistic because

- 1) Concentration of wealth of the country

Remarks

in the hands of few elite.

↳ Concentration of wealth is against the constitutional mandate under Article 39.

↳ Despite of laws we are witnessing subjugation of SC's, ST's, minorities against them.

↳ Issues of Gender Justice and poor condition of women is still prevalent in our society.

Steps required to achieve the objective

- 1) Empowerment of disadvantaged section, and women by the initiatives such as women entrepreneurship scheme.
- 2) We have to achieve economic empowerment as it is important for social empowerment.
- 3) Change in the attitude of last discrimination and patriarchal mindset.
- 4) Forming of laws is not sufficient but their strict implementation is important to achieve social and economic justice.

Remarks

More specific measures required.

- Q3. Illustrate the role of Microfinance in rural development? Also explain why the microfinance model, which was once considered as a force of development, became a tool of exploitation? (10 Marks)

→ Micro finance institutions are

Money lenders, Saral pheds, Hundi's in rural areas. RRBs (Precisely discuss their constructive role in rural areas are not formally connected with formal means of finance like Banks etc. Connectivity is hurdle in penetration of banking sector in rural area. Also demand of money supply in rural areas is often less.

Main demand is for purchasing seed, agricultural equipment in many the short term in nature. Traditional microfinance agencies were in close touch with rural areas. So it was easy mean of money for rural areas. And was considered as force of development

But it become a tool of exploitation

- 1) Microfinance sector is unregulated
- 2) No codified laws;
- 3) Due to lack of regulation there is-

Remarks

Exorbitant rate of interest

- 4) High interest rates left farmers nothing in their hand
- 5) ~~mean~~ of Institutions use force to recover their dues. than for rural areas.
- This led to exploitation and farmers in many areas force to do suicide prevalent in Maharashtra and Andhra Pradesh.

1.32 New initiative of microfinance like small bank or payment bank, S.D.B. etc can change the situation in rural areas. Leads Bank scheme can be one of the best option for credible microfinance in rural India.

Remarks

- Q4. The 74th Amendment is crucial to the strengthening of key public delivery channels, and unfortunately has not been accorded with the importance it deserves. Analyze.

(10 Marks)

→ 74th Constitutional amendment act - gave constitutional recognition to Urban local bodies. It was considered as important tool for decentralization.

As ~~to~~ Urban local bodies (U.L.B), helps in bringing administration and citizens together. With wide participation it ~~is~~ is best mean to deliver services

However, it has not achieve the success because it is ~~not~~ not getting the importance it deserves reasons are Reasons are

- 1) Decentralization not followed in letter and spirit
- 2) Top-down approach not completely replaced by bottom-up approach
- 3) Inadequate source of resource to U.L.B
- 4) Lack of transfer of power and funds

Remarks

- Narrow tax base and low tax buoyancy
- Poor quality of services

- Problem of rural-urban fringe
- 10. Lack of professional and managerial capacities

generation mechanism by state

5) Bureaucratic based hurdles

6) Lack of political will as emanating leadership from U.L.B. is considered

Briefly as competition to establish leadership discussed mentioned issue to bring Amendment act since it is more clarity adoption achieve some success but facing some challenges.

3. N.I.T.I. Aayog, Competitive, cooperative cooperative federalism, and implementation of recommendations of 14th Finance Commission can make U.L.B as real means of decentralization and efficient goods and service provider.

Remarks

- Q5. "Even though the Indian system is based on division of power; it is skewed in favor of judiciary, which is not ready to accept any check and balance on its powers." Critically analyze. (10 Marks)

Constitution of India, ~~spec~~ divided the power among Executive, Legislature and Judiciary. Under original scheme of Constitution there was no balance between these 3 organs. But over a period of time judiciary has become prominent especially after Keshwanand Bharti case, 1973.

JW Doctrine of basic structure made judiciary more powerful. Constitutional safeguards to Judiciary

- 1) judiciary in India is more powerful than that in United States Britain
- 2) Fundamental rights, Federal Structure gave advantage also emergence of coalitions politics made judiciary's position strong.
- 3) Judiciary ~~does~~ asserting transparency in all branches of government, but keep itself opaque from being transparent it refused to come under R.T.I

Remarks

Analytically discuss the Judicial Activism and they discuss the touch me not attitude of Judiciary.

a) Struck down the N.T.A.C and established primarily in appointment of judges.

However the position of Judiciary is also supported on many grounds

i) By declaring N.T.A.C Act unconstitutional it established primarily to maintain Judicial independence.

ii) Judicial independence is important because government itself is largely litigious in India.
Logic in declaring the N.T.A.C as unconstitutional was to ensure judiciary free from fear of fear of the Executive.

There are some criticism on the of judiciary over a period of time but Judiciary is successful in defending the constitution. However Executive's role

However when Judiciary is expecting everyone as transparent it self cannot become opaque.

Remarks

- Q6: The Model Code of Conduct intends to provide a level playing field for all political parties, keeping the campaign fair and healthy, avoid clashes and conflicts between parties, and ensure peace and public order. Evaluate in the light of the above statement the performance of the Election Commission in implementing the model code of conduct.

→ Model Code of Conduct is code
for Political parties, and candidates. (10 Marks)

They are basic guiding principles which attempts to limit the role of money, muscle and power in the election. Promotes election in peaceful manner and helps in strengthening of democracy.

Election became more power free. Specifically after 1991's election, strict implementation has helped in reducing the clashes and conflicts. So instead of largest f: democracy we witnessed peaceful transfer of power i.e. is the success of election commission.

However there are some limitation to Election Commission in implementation of M.C.C.

i) They are not completely able to minimize the use of money and force

Remarks

in election

ii) political parties and candidates often violates M.C.C.

- 3) They are not so powerful to detect the parties.
- 4) lack in enforcing disciplinary action
- 5) Commission is not successful to punish those who are violating the M.C.C.

That is the reason E.C. has

(2) granted the Government to give more powers. As of now E.C. can't cancel Voting only in booth level. Commission is demanding the power to cancel the Voting at constituency level.

Strong role of E.C. will further make the election procedure more transparent.

Discuss the positive interventions made by E.C to enforce MCC in detail

Remarks

Also discuss the criticism related to MCC.

- Q7. Decriminalization of suicide attempt has been a long standing demand by the human right activists in India; discuss the pros and cons of any such law, if it gets passed in India? (10 Marks)

→ Supreme Court in its judgement decriminalized suicide which was criminal offence under Section 309 of the I.P.C (Indian Penal Code). It was long standing demand by Human right activist on the ground of humanitarian reasons.

Pros

- 1) Those who are not attempted suicide will be able to ~~not~~

Pros

- 1) Person who are frustrated with life attempts suicide and put them behind bars is inhumane
- 2) It can help person to give the second chance to live with dignity.
- 3) Decriminalization can help NGOs and other humanitarian groups for counselling of person.

Remarks

Explain mentioned points more precisely

Discuss more pros and cons

(cons -

- 1) It is a fear that it can be utilized as a tool of threat.
- 2) It can be used in domestic conflict ~~and also~~.
- 3) To fulfill the vested interest.

so there is need of wide debate in such a situation though decriminalization is good step in right direction it is also equally important that no one should use it for personal gains.

If suicide attempt found to be malafide then there can be a punishment to avoid its use.

it has been in demand since 1970's through N.I.E.O (new international economic order).

demand became prominent since 1991 globalization policy, after many countries demand it came into effect

2) too little → There is very little change. U.S.A, France, China

Share is ~~excessive~~ enormous and also ~~affecting~~ after reforms they will have greater say. It has not improve bargaining power of developing block.

3) Due to too late & too little attitude new alternative mechanism like New Bank, A-Z.I.B one emerging. They will further put pressure on I.M.F. to be more democratize and transparent
